

Emily Alonso-Taub

Vice President of Philanthropy

Emily Alonso-Taub serves as Vice President of Philanthropy for COSI, and is responsible for leading the development team to raise philanthropic revenue that is integral to supporting the mission and vision of COSI.

Prior to joining COSI, Ms. Alonso-Taub served as the Senior Vice President of Development at Mid-Ohio Food Collective where she led the development team and served on the executive leadership team. In her nearly six years at the Food Collective, Ms. Alonso-Taub increased annual contributed revenue by more than 80%. In addition, Ms. Alonso-Taub led the creation and execution of the Rooted in You comprehensive campaign, forging key relationships with individuals, businesses, and organizations in Central Ohio that led to campaign contributions totaling more than $40 million.

Ms. Alonso-Taub has more than two decades of fundraising experience, leading teams to execute strategy and secure leadership gifts for comprehensive campaigns at academic institutions, including Ohio Wesleyan University, The Ohio State University and NYU Langone Medical Center. Ms. Alonso-Taub has served on several non-profit boards and holds a Bachelor's degree in Retail Management from Syracuse University.